

NEWS BULL-E-TINS VOL 1 – ALICE SPRINGS MASTERS 2008

BOOKIE TAKES BIG HIT

Darwin : 6/8/08 –

Darwin bookmaker Lance Boil of Boilovers bookmakers has laid off a million dollar bet today from an unknown punter at odds of $ 1.40 for the Master Bulls to actually win a game in the upcoming Masters Games in Alice Springs in October; once Mr Boil actually stopped laughing hysterically, he commented something about “like taking candy from a baby”

SECURITY INCREASE FOR ARRIVAL OF BULLS

Flashback
Alice Springs – Oct 2006
Wild pandemonium as the people of Alice Springs embraced the arrival of the Bulls Master team at the opening ceremony (see left)
This year security will be stepped up to stop the wild scenes of 2 years ago
Additional WESLO security teams will be flown in from all over Australia to ensure the safety of the popular team

NEW AWAY CAPS

Bulls marketing director Martin BullFrog (seen above) is displaying the new look away cap to worn by the Bulls in this years Games campaign
Martin commented that “apart from the smell, they were really quite comfy on the first day, but to wear them on second and subsequent days they need to be turned inside out”

CHEER SQUAD WARNED

The Master Bulls cheer squad (seen left) have been warned that the unruly behaviour of 2 years ago will not be tolerated.
Alice Springs mayor Albert Cannawalkalotcausegotonelongleg has told the local supporters that any more of their stick banging and bark throwing and they will be escorted from the stadium

LOCAL COACH TO HELP OUT

Murray (no surname) of the local baseball club the Todd Twangers (left - seen coaching third at a recent game)
Has been secured for an undisclosed sum to localise the Bulls at Treager Park
Bull’s coach Mal Watts has welcomed the move commenting “anything may help”
The Bulls game committee made the unusual move as last campaign it was obvious that the Bulls took some time to acclimatise to the local conditions and playing surfaces

Local Adelaide secret service superintendent Bob Notfunnytrytocrackusup (seen below left of picture) went under cover last Games and discovered a massive gambling ring led by little head of operations “Danny the Banker Bull” (seen right) but was unable to get the bust – Bob commented – “this year will be different, we have more operatives working undercover within the inner sanctum of the Bull’s ring”

GAMBLING CRACK DOWN

ALCO POPS & BINGE DRINKING

Local police at Alice Springs will clamp down on Alco Pops and binge drinking at this years Masters
As can be seen in picture at left the situation got out of control at the last Games
Senior police official Barry (no surname) especially highlighted that the person seen left was on police file and all officers were on the lookout for this suspicious character in the streets this year and no stone would be unturned to get the unknown character behind bars (not in front)

CEO STUNG

It is still unknown whether current Bulls CEO Mark Borlace will make the trip to Alice this year after being caught in an elaborate uncover police sting
Borlace (seen here left accepting a bribe – picture from case evidence SAPOL) from “Fingers Bishop” has been charged, pending further investigation
